Do you, or does your child enjoy writing? What about creative writing? Come, learn and have some fun with the ability to express yourself through creative writing. Each week, students will be given a topic and be challenged to use critical thinking skills paired with creative writing skills. This is a fun writing workshop but also meant to expand one’s ability to “think outside the box” and tap into critical thinking, using a creative writing forum. It’s going to be fun! This workshop comes with a journal for each student to keep track of their creative writing experiences. Pens and pencils will also be provided.

REMINDER:

It is the parent’s responsibility to get your child to and from performances, pictures and practices. Parents, please have a plan in place with your child on where they should go after school, IF football practice is canceled.

All kids should be picked up promptly, on time at 4:30pm.

OTHER DETIALS:

Each student will be provided with a journal and pens/pencils.
